A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a waste of time to treat a liver that is not diseased. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or "rises" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot breads and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is a non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and attested by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

PROF. FOSTER EXPELLED.

After four hours of fiery debate, in which hisses from ministerial lips seared the air of Steinway Hall, Chicago, and in which sizzling personalities were hurled back and forth from pastor to pastor, the Baptist Ministers' Conference yesterday passed the following resolution by a vote of 40 to 10:

"Resolved, that we, the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Chicago, do hereby drop Prof. George Burman Foster from our rolls of membership."

The action followed two weeks of futile efforts to cast the university man because of his religious writings, which they asserted were opposed to fundamental doctrine. The meeting closed in a tumult, and in the midst of it Rev. M. P. Boynton, who led in the defense of Dr. Foster, said:

"The action taken here today was an ecclesiastical lynching by mob law. We had no right to take it. In dropping Dr. Foster we are arrogating to ourselves the powers of a court. The entire proceedings were unchristian in the extreme. All I demanded was fair play and a square deal. This, however, is exactly what Prof. Foster did not get."

The alleged failure of Dr. Myers to keep a promise made at last Monday's meeting of the conference caused another outbreak, which caused riotous scenes, lasting over an hour.

A CUSING WOMAN.

At Castle Boon, Pa., Judge Nott has decided to admit the cussing of Mrs. Howard Bloster, as evidence in her suit for divorce, and more testimony to show her proficiency in this direction will be taken.

In his opinion, Judge Nott held that the accomplishments of Mrs. Bloster were admissible, since they tended to fix her position in society. He also said that swearing was an acquired art, and the more capable persons were the greater were the demands made upon them.

Part of the character witnesses were heard on Saturday.
"To my knowledge," testified Anton Custer, the chauffeur, "my mistress can swear in three languages fluently, and in two others she knows enough cuss words to carry on a conversation. Her best work, of course, is in English. In this language she can swear forty-five minutes without repeating herself."

"She swears like a person of position, choosing her words with admirable care and force. Upon one occasion, I heard her address a few remarks to a badly cooked piece of beef. Her comments were so hot that, before she had finished, the meat was scorched black."

"When she is in form, she can dam up a stream without much effect, simply by a well-directed use of concentrated words."

WOMEN'S LOSSES AT POKER.

Poker playing among Philadelphia women for high stakes has stirred up things so much that the game has ceased to be a joke. From 5-cent ante and quarter limit it has jumped to 50-cent ante with the blue canopy of the heavens as the limit.

One woman is reported to have lost $2,000 during an evening's play. Another is said to have lost repeatedly such large sums that her husband has taken separate apartments and is considering suing for divorce. Names of wives of officials of the city and county and members of the Stock Exchange and Board of Trade are mentioned in connection with the affair.

The women poker players are said not to be members of any regularly organized club. Some of them belong to clubs where whist and euchre are played but these clubs are not involved in the threatened trouble.

One story is told of a woman, wife of a Board of Trade member, who advanced $500 on the diamonds of one player and who afterward gave back the jewels at the fearful plea of the loser, mixed with the threat to make the story public.

BIG FISH WHIPS A WHALE.

A fight between monsters of the ocean was witnessed yesterday off Nantucket. Shoals lightship by passengers and crew of the steamer Esparto, which arrived at Boston from Port Limon. The combatants were a whale and a great fish, believed to have been a sword fish. The former was vanquished. The whale only was visible. It lashed its tail violently, churning the water into a mass of foam, attacking its adversary with its jaws. Finally, however, the whale was seen to throw its massive bulk clear of the water and then sink from sight. The water for a considerable distance were red with blood.

KILLED BY BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Bruce Davis, a farmer, about forty years of age, was cut to death Sunday afternoon at his home, at Stockton, Henry county, Va., by his brother-in-law, Ed. Kean, who is about twenty-three years of age. Davis is alleged to have been abusing and mistreating his wife, the sister of Kean. The latter, it is said, interfered and a fight took place between him and the dead man. Kean is said to have stabbed Davis many times in the breast and back, inflicting injuries which caused his death a few minutes afterward. Kean went to Martinsville, the county seat of Henry, and surrendered yesterday. Both of the principals in the affair are well known and well connected.
